

Fort Bend Independent School District

Timothy R. Jenney, MBA, Ph.D.
Superintendent

Dear Sheryl,

Happy 50th Birthday to you. I am really happy for you and can only imagine what is in store for you in the future. You are the poster child for the phrase, "life begins at 50."

I remember so well visiting you at Cooke Elementary where I surprised you and many of your colleagues with the announcement that you had been selected as the Virginia Beach Teacher of the Year.

As the year progressed, Donna and I were preparing for the next year of "raising Sheryl." You were being groomed to take over as chairman of the Teacher Forum. And who could forget the infamous meeting of the past Teachers of the Year, organized to serve as training for leadership, when in fact you knew it for what it was – an attempt to reign you in.

Sheryl, I admire your talents, your drive, and your spirit. You are just getting started relative to your career, and I could not be more proud to have been a small part of your success.

Best wishes, Happy Birthday, and go-get-em!

Sincerely,

Fort Bend Independent School District

Timothy R. Jenney, MBA, Ph.D.
Superintendent

Dear Sheryl,

Happy 50th Birthday to you. I am really happy for you and can only imagine what is in store for you in the future. You are the poster child for the phrase, "life begins at 50."

I remember so well visiting you at Cooke Elementary where I surprised you and many of your colleagues with the announcement that you had been selected as the Virginia Beach Teacher of the Year.

As the year progressed, Donna and I were preparing for the next year of "raising Sheryl." You were being groomed to take over as chairman of the Teacher Forum. And who could forget the infamous meeting of the past Teachers of the Year, organized to serve as training for leadership, when in fact you knew it for what it was – an attempt to reign you in.

Sheryl, I admire your talents, your drive, and your spirit. You are just getting started relative to your career, and I could not be more proud to have been a small part of your success.

Best wishes, Happy Birthday, and go-get-em!

Sincerely,